Name

Civil War Who Am I Interactive Activity

Artifacts:

- 1. Model 1858 forage cap or kepi. Soldiers in both armies wore caps like this. The Union wore dark blue. The Confederates wore grey or a light brown color called butternut.
- 2. Draft Letter. During the Civil War, the US Congress adopted a law that made it legal to require, or draft, men between 18 and 35 to serve in the army.
- 3. Both Union and Confederate doctors and nurses used medicine cases while tending to wounded and sick soldiers.
- 4. A snare drum was used as both a musical instrument and a signaling device.
- 5. Recruitment Poster. Who was the recruitment poster supposed to help recruit? African Americans Which army was recruiting them? Union army
- 6. A Hardee hat was originally designed for the cavalry in 1855 when Jefferson Davis was still US Secretary of War.
- 7. What weapon was popular with Native American soldiers? bowie knives
- 8. One picture shows the plate, fork, and knife that was issued to prisoners of war.
- 9. Patriotic envelopes were used by nurses who wrote home on behalf of the soldiers in their care.
- 10. Field Glasses were used to scout troop movements and positions and to view battles.

Name
------

People:

1. The Union Drummer Boy's name was Willie Johnston. He is 12 years old. He served in his father's unit. When did he have to get up? Before dawn

He beat announcements all day long. On the march and in battle, he used his drums to communicate orders. What other jobs did he have to do? (Answers will vary.) chop wood, tend the mules and horses, and help care for sick and wounded soldiers

How old were most musicians in the Union Army? Under 18 Infantry soldiers fight and travel on foot. Cavalry travels on horseback. Soldiers in the Artillery man the cannons and other big guns during battles. Engineers build and fix things and the Quartermasters make sure that everyone has enough food, clothing, and ammunition.

- 2. Who was in the US Colored Troops of America? Lewis Douglass What was his rank? Sergeant-Major When did the Union begin allowing African Americans to serve? 1862 He says, "Some of us have had an opportunity to distinguish ourselves in battle." What sorts of things does he say that other African Americans had to do? Answers may vary. shoveling horse manure or digging entrenchments
- 3. Who was the Cherokee Confederate General? Stand Waite (Yes, that is his real name.)

Did Native Americans usually side with the Union or Confederate army? Confederate Why do you think so? Answers will vary, but may include something about the US government issuing the Trail of Tears...)

Name the tribes mentioned who fought for Southern Independence: Cherokee, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek, and Seminole.

Name

- 4. Who was a Confederate Spy? Belle Boyd How old was she when she first became a spy? 17 When she flirted with a Yankee soldier, for what famous general was she getting information? Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson Why do you think that she isn't held very long when she is arrested Answers will vary, but will probably include that she's a woman. Why does she choose to carry a .44 caliber derringer? It is easy to hide in her dress.
- 5. Who was the Union Colonel, POW? John Simpson Crocker

What was the prisoner of war camp used for before the Civil War? Packing pork Describe that room: Answers will vary, but may include - foul, "The floors covered in grease and saturated with salt; it is damp and the sun never enters."

6. Who is the Union Nurse? Dorothea Dix

Nurses must be plain women. They must wear their hair without curls. They must dress simply in skirts without hoops.

What did they feed the wounded? lemon juice, beef-tea, and milk porridge.