

Name _____

Civil War Who Am I Interactive Activity

Artifacts:

1. Model 1858 forage cap or _____. Soldiers in both armies wore caps like this. The Union wore _____. The Confederates wore _____ or a _____ color called butternut.
2. Draft Letter. During the _____, the US Congress adopted a law that made it legal to require, or _____, men between 18 and 35 to serve in the _____.
3. Both Union and Confederate doctors and nurses used _____ while tending to wounded and sick soldiers.
4. A _____ drum was used as both a musical instrument and a _____.
5. Recruitment Poster. Who was the recruitment poster supposed to help recruit? _____ Which army was recruiting them? _____
6. A Hardee hat was originally designed for the _____ in 1855 when _____ was still US Secretary of War.
7. What weapon was popular with Native American soldiers?

8. One picture shows the _____, _____, and _____ that was issued to prisoners of war.

Name _____

9. Patriotic envelopes were used by _____ who wrote home on behalf of the soldiers in their care.
10. _____ were used to scout troop movements and positions and to view battles.

People:

1. The Union Drummer Boy's name was _____
_____. He is _____ years old. He served in his father's unit. When did he have to get up? _____

He beat _____ all day long. On the march and in battle, he used his drums to _____ _____. What other jobs did he have to do? _____

How old were most musicians in the Union Army?

_____ soldiers fight and travel on foot.
_____ travels on horseback. Soldiers in the _____ man the cannons and other big guns during battles. _____ build and fix things and the _____ make sure that everyone has enough food, clothing, and ammunition.

2. Who was in the US Colored Troops of America?
_____ What was his rank?
_____ When did the Union begin allowing African Americans to serve? _____

He says, "Some of us have had an opportunity to distinguish ourselves in _____." What sorts of things does he say that other African Americans had to do? _____

Name _____

3. Who was the Cherokee Confederate General? _____
_____ (Yes, that is his real name.)

Did Native Americans usually side with the Union or Confederate army? _____ Why do you think so? _____

Name the tribes mentioned who fought for Southern Independence: _____, _____, _____, _____, and _____.

4. Who was a Confederate Spy? _____ How old was she when she first became a spy? _____ When she flirted with a Yankee soldier, for what famous general was she getting information? _____ Why do you think that she isn't held very long when she is arrested.

_____ Why does she choose to carry a .44 caliber derringer? _____

5. Who was the Union Colonel, POW? _____

What was the prisoner of war camp used for before the Civil War? _____ Describe that room:

6. Who is the Union Nurse? _____

Name _____

Nurses must be _____ . They must wear their hair without _____. They must dress simply in _____ without hoops.

What did they feed the wounded? _____
_____, _____, and _____
_____.